

W A R N I I N G

Chlorhexidine – alcohol

After skin antisepsis, use sterile towels to blot up any accumulation of solution under the patient, in the patient's armpits, between thighs and in the umbilicus. Remove all material that becomes soaked with the alcohol solution. Wait until the solution dries, approximately 3 minutes, before using equipment that can produce flames or sparks (electrocautery, laser, etc.).

